

Corps Reservoir Levels Since 1-Oct-2023 (Feet Above or Below Guide Curve)

Corps of Engineers Reservoir Update – 11 Sep 2024

Falls

- Normal ops – currently about 0.25 ft above guide curve
- Clayton flow target: drops from 254 cfs to 184 cfs in Nov
- no concerns for now

Jordan

- Normal ops – currently about 0.2 ft above guide curve
- prescribed reductions in Lillington flow target per DCP when WQ<80%
- no concerns for now

WK Scott

- Normal operations (for now) – currently 0.8 ft BELOW guide curve
- Wilkesboro flow target: reduces from 400 to 350 cfs when 1 ft below GC (should stabilize lake level)

JH Kerr

- Minimum Energy operations – currently 0.3 ft BELOW guide curve
- GC starts dropping in Oct
- no concerns for now